

The University provides a range of educational benefits for full-time employees and their dependent children and current spouse. These benefits include tuition remission for current full-time employees and their dependent children (as established by federal tax guidelines) for students of the University, and (2) must have the required academic background for the desired course, and (3) must have the approval of his or her supervisor.

NOTE: An employee's enrollment cannot interfere with current job responsibilities and courses may not be taken during normal work hours. Also, employees seeking financial aid must complete a financial aid application and cannot have an outstanding balance on their University account. The University will not remit any refunds until the tuition waiver is applied.

2. Entities Affected

xFinancial Aid

xFinance and Administration

3. Policy Owner/Interpreting Authority

Executive Vice President for Finance and Administration

4. Related Policies

5. Statutory or Regulatory References